

INTERNATIONAL PUBLISHING FELLOWSHIP

The British Council is launching a new International Publishing Fellowship connecting UK and overseas publishing professionals.

Six UK publishing professionals will be paired with their counterparts in Georgia, Turkey or Ukraine, and take part in a curated study visit, to gain sector insight and forge professional connections.

DATES

September 2019 – September 2020.

Applicants should:

- have 2–6 years' experience in the sector
- work in trade fiction or non-fiction, across any genre.

This is a professional development opportunity aimed at individuals only. Individuals should apply in a personal capacity, with the consent of their employer.

Visit <https://literature.britishcouncil.org/blog/2019/internationalpublishingfellowship> for more information and to apply.

Deadline: 17.00 on 6 September 2019.
